DOWNING-BARNES.

Miss Pearl Barnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Barnes of Strayers' Crossing, last evening became the bride of James Downing, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Downing of the Twenty-fourth street road. The service was performed at 9 o'clock in the home of the bride's parents by Dr. H. W. Reed of the First Baptist church. 30 guests witnessed the ceremony. The couple was unattended. The house was simply decorated in yellow and white, chrysanthemums in tall vases carrying out the colors. The bride wore a lovely dress of white crepe de chine trimmed in white fur. She carried an arm bouquet of yellow and white chrysanthemums. The service was followed by a dinner served in the dining room where yellow and white were the predominating colors. Mr. and Mrs. Downing left last evening for a short wedding trip, the bride wearing a dress of blue satin with a black fur trimmed coat and hat to match. They will reside on the Twenty-fourth street road upon the completion of their home in course of erection. Mr. Downing is in the dairy business in the city. His bride has been employed for two years by Leithner & Weisner.

The house had been decorated with pink and white flowers and festoons, carrying out the colors chosen by the bride to be for her wedding. Games and contests filled the evening, favors in the latter going to Miss Anna Bleuer and Miss Velma Schmidt. At 10 o'clock lunch was served with pink and white car-

Get GETS-IT For Corns

Beware of Imitations.

"Anybody that says that there's something else for corns as good as 'GETS-IT' either never had corns and is merely guessing, or never used 'GETS-IT' and don't know. I've tried quite a few of the 'just as good' kind—but now I use the one that millions are using because of the million wonders it has done—'GETS-IT'.

"GETS-IT" Put Your Feet in Clover.

Look out for imitations of 'GETS-IT' made up with names which sound similar. Take no chances with your feet.

When you've gone along for years trying everything, when you've sat up nights wrapping up your toes in bandages, smearing on salves that rub off or swell up the corn, pasting on cotton plaster that make corns pop-eyed, slanting your toes with razors, jabbing them with knives and prunings to the quick with scissors—and then you put on 2 drops of 'GETS-IT' and see your corns come clean off—why it just looks like a miracle. No wonder you get mad when somebody says there's something as good as 'GETS-IT' for any corn, callus, wart or bunion. 'GETS-IT' never fails. No pain, no trouble. Avoid substitutes.

'GETS-IT' is sold by druggists everywhere. No a bottle, or send direct to E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I am a girl of 16. Do you think I am too young to get married?

(2) I have been going with my beau for a year and five months and he wants to get married. He is a very nice and handsome boy. He is 20 years old and he says he loves me. I certainly love him. There is one thing I don't want to live with his mother for a while. Do you think it would be all right? Please advise me what to do. He is a farmer.

(3) There is a boy who lives near me and he wants to go with me. He has been after me three times inside of a week and I have told him that I do not want to have anything to do with him. But he still comes. Please tell me what to tell him so that he won't come back any more.

AN UNHAPPY GIRL.

(1) Yes, you are too young. The burdens of life would fall upon you heavily and make you very unhappy because you would not be fitted to meet them.

(2) I do not think you would be happy living with his mother. If you wait two or three years he may be able to make a home for you somewhere else.

(3) Have your father tell the boy not to bother you any more.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I am a girl of 19 years and am going with a fellow of 20 years. Do you think we are too young to get married if his father doesn't care?

(2) Do you think he loves me if he goes places without me?

(3) Do you think three nights a week is too often for him to come to see me?

(4) I am to be married next spring and I do not want to have a wedding, but I would like to have a few of my friends to come in the evening. What would be a nice lunch to serve?

(5) What kind of games would we play? My friend does not play cards or dance.

(6) Should I keep my wedding dress on or should I get another to wear that evening?

(7) There are some girls who are always saying bad things about me. What should I do to make them stop?

(8) I am light complexioned with light red hair. What color would be nice for me to wear?

MISS SHAMROCK.
